REMARKABLE PROPHECY BRING FULFILLED.

We remember seeing and ridiculing the following letter of Lord Macaulay in 1857, twelve years ago. We did not then think it at it was possible for such predictions in regard to the United States to approach fulfilment in the slightest degree. Mr. Randall, to whom the letter is addressed, is a citizen of Philadelphia:

Letter from Lord Macaulay to the Hon. Henry S. Randall.

HOLLY LODGE, KENSINGTON, LONDON, May 25, 1857.

Henry S. Randall, Esq.:—Dear Sir: You are surprised to learn that I have not a high opinion of Mr. Jefferson, and I am surprised at your surprise. I am certain that I never wrote a line, and that I never, in Parliament, in conversation, or even on the hustings—a place where it is the fashion to court the populace—uttered a word indicating an opinion that the supreme authority in a State ought to be entrusted to the majority of citizens composing the poorest and most ignorant party of society. I have long been convinced that institutions purely Democratic must, sooner or later, destroy liberty or civilization, or both.

In Europe, where the population is dense, the effect of such institutions would be almost instantaneous. What happened lately in France is an example. In 1848 a pure Democracy was established there. During a short time there was reason to expect a general spoliation—a natural bankruptcy, a new partition of the soil, a maximum of price, a ruinous load of taxation laid on the rich for the purpose of supporting the poor in idleness.

Such a system would, in twenty years, have made France as poor and barbarous as France of the Carlovingians. Happily the danger was averted; and now there is a despotism, a silent tribune, an enslaved Press. Liberty is gone; but civilization has been saved. I have not the smallest doubt that, if we had a purely Democratic government here, the effect would be the same. Either the poor would plunder the rich, and civilization would perish, or order and property would be saved by a strong military government, and liberty would perish. You may think that your country enjoys an exemption from these evils. I will frankly own to you that I am of a very different opinion. Your fate I believe to be certain, though it is deferred by a physical cause. As long as you have a boundless extent of fertile and unoccupied land, your laboring population will be far more at ease than the laboring population of the Old World; and while that is the case, the Jeffersonian policy may continue to exist without causing any fatal calamity. But the time will come when New England will be as thickly peopled as Old England.—Wages will be as low and will fluctuate as much with you as with us. You will have your Manchesters and Birminghams; and in these Manchesters and Birminghams hundreds of thousands of artisans will assuredly be sometimes out of work. Then your institutions will be fairly brought to the test.

Distress everywhere makes the laborer mutinous and discontented, and inclines him to listen with eagerness to agitators, who tell him that it is a monstrous iniquity that one man should have a million while another cannot get a full meal. In bad years there is plenty of grumbling here, and a little rioting; but it matters little; for here the sufferers are not the rulers—the supreme power is in the hands of a class numerous indeed, but select, of an educated class—of a class which is and knows itself to be deeply interested in the security of property and the maintainance of order.—Accordingly, the malcontents are firmly, yet gently, restrained. The bad time is got over without robbing the wealthy to relieve the indigent. The springs of national prosperity soon begin to flow again; work is plentiful, wages rise, and all is tranquility and cheerfulness. I have seen England pass three or four times through such critical seasons as I have described. Through such seasons the United States will have to pass in the course of the next century, if not of this. How will you pass through them?

I heartily wish you good deliverance.—But my reason and wishes are at war, and I cannot help forboding the worst. It is quite plain that your Government will never be able to restrain a distressed and discontented majority. For with you the majority is the Government, and has the rich, who are always a minority, absolutely at its mercy. The day will come when in the State of New York a multitude of people, none of whom has had more than half a breakfast or expects to have more than half a dinner, will choose a Legislature. Is it possible to doubt what sort of Legislature will be chosen? On one side is a statesman preaching patience, respect for vested rights, and strict observance of public faith. On the other is a demagogue chanting about the tyranny of capitalists and stockjobbers, and asking why anybody should be permitted to drink champaigne and to ride in a carriage, while thousands of honest folks are in want of necessaries. Which of the two candidates are likely to be preferred by a workingman who hears his children cry for more bread? I seriously apprehend that you will, in some such season of adversity as I have described, do things which will prevent prosperity from returning; that you will act like people who, in a year of scarcity, devour all the seed corn, and thus make the next year a year not of scarcity, but of absolute famine. There will be, I fear, spoliation. The spoliation will increase distress. The distress will produce fresh spoliation. There is nothing to stay you. Your Constitution is all sail and no anchor. As I said before, when a society has entered on this downward progress either civilization or liberty must perish. Either some Cæsar or Napoleon will seize the reins of Government with a strong hand, or your Republic will be as fearfully plundered and laid waste by barbarians in the twentieth century as the Roman Empire was in the fifth, with this difference, that the Huns and Vandals, who ravaged the Roman Empire, came from without, and that your Huns and Vandals will have been engendered within your country by your own institutions. Thinking this, of course I cannot reckon Jefferson among the benefactors of mankind; I readily admit that his intentions were good and his abilities considerable. Odious stories have been circulated about his private life; but I do not know on what evidence those stories rest, and I think it probable that they are false or monstrously exaggerated. I have no doubt that I shall derive both pleasure and information from your account of him.

I have the honor to be, dear sir, your faithful servant. T. B. MACAULAY.

READ WHAT THE
HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!
Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, JULY 19, 1869.

Conservative and Democratic Nominee.

FOR SENATOR,

FOR THE NINETEENTH DISTRICT,

JOSHUA PERRY,

OF FRANKLIN.

"STILL HARPING ON MY DAUGHTER."

The Standard is still exercised on the subject of the death of Democracy. It keeps on striking, as if, while claiming, exclaiming and proclaiming that Democracy is dead, yet seems afraid that it is not dead, and so lays on with a vim which evinces an earnest determination that, if not dead, it shall be, soon. All the while the sturdy form of Democracy, that has braved a thousand storms and come out victor in a thousand conflicts, does not wink an eye-lash or move a muscle. Surely it must be dead; or, which is more probable, it is dozing and, like Gulliver, attacked by the Lilliputions, does not feel the blows aimed by the doughty hero of the Standard.

But all the time the Standard is engaged in trying to convince itself that the Democracy is dead and can't bite it; it is as earnestly engaged in trying to convince others that it is very much alive and overly conservative, extremely liberal to all men and not at all proscriptive—"not much so, now, and never ha'nt been." The effort is amusing, and would provoke laughter, if the weather was not too warm to indulge lavishly in that luxury. We are willing to let the Standard be conservative; we are willing it should be liberal in its policy; we are willing it should join in with the good and true conservative men in this State to drive out from among us men of the Well's type, as did the combined Conservatives in Virginia. We are willing he should be admitted into the true Conservative fold without a prolonged probation, on one condition. He says, in this morning's issue, speaking of the Republican party, "its platform is Universal Suffrage and General Amnesty." Now, let the Standard show that, in any editorial, it has ever advocated that platform, prior to the Virginia election, and we will give our vote for his immediate reception into the Conservative ranks, in full fellowship.

If it cannot be shown that he has done this, we shall feel that its present blatant professions are but a ruse to hide its recent extreme Radical affinities, and shall be obliged to vote that he be "taken on trial awhile" until he shall "prove his faith by his works." In the mean time we commend to J. B. N. & Co., a perusal of Maj. Smith's speech at Salisbury, which we publish to day, and let us know what he thinks of the Major's description of our Legislature.

MORE MISCEGENATION.—A negro man and white woman were married, six miles from this city, on the morning of the 16th inst. They were married at the house of Wyatt Lockley, colored, by Norfleet Dunstan, colored, one of Holden's Squires and a city Commissioner of Raleigh. The negro man, who was married, is named William Jones, the white woman, Elizabeth Woodward, daughter of Berry Woodward.

Here is another practical refutation of the assertion of the Radicals and negroes, that they do not desire nor seek social equality with the whites. Holden appoints an ignorant negro to the office of Magistrate, a Radical Clerk issues the license, and the social equality is an fait accompli, in the marriage of Bill Jones, negro, and Betsey Woodward, a white woman. Holden and the Radical party are responsible for this consummation, because it is the legitimate result of their teaching and policy.

PENITENTIARY BONDS.—Where are the State bonds for $100,000, issued by the Treasurer and approved by the Governor, for that 8,000 acres of land for the Penitentiary, located on Deep River? Will the Treasurer inform the public if these Bonds have been returned to the Treasury?

UNITED STATES INHERITANCE TAX.—The supervisor of internal revenue of this district furnishes the following important statement, relative to a recent decision of the commissioner of internal revenue in regard to the liability of real estate for the payment of the United States inheritance tax:

"By letter bearing date June 21st, 1869, to R. M. Proud, Esq., assessor, the commissioner of internal revenue has reaffirmed the decision of the department concerning the liability to successive tax of the widow's dower in real estate, on the death of the widow, whether the husband (the original possessor of the realty) died prior or subsequent to June 30th, 1864, the date of the act. Thus, all real estate vesting in possession after June 30th, 1864, by will or the laws of descent, is subject to this United States inheritance tax, and a failure on the part of inheritor or trustee to report the same to the proper officer and pay the tax makes him liable to a fine of $500. The tax is also a lien upon the property, although it may have been sold to another person. Purchasers of real estate would do well to see that they buy unencumbered property."

MAJOR SMITH'S SPEECH.

As our friend promised, he has sent us a report of Mr. Smith's speech. Those who heard it, when they read, will say the speech lost much of its spice by being reported.—There are speakers and some speeches that can't be reported. This is true in this case. To those who were not there to hear, this partial report of the speech will give them some idea of how "Billy blew his horn."

Substance of the remarks of Major W. A. Smith, President N. C. R. R. Co., in reply to the Commissioners of the A. & N. C. R. R. and in opposition to the adoption of the recent act of the Legislature, proposing to Consolidate the N. C. R. R. Co. and the A. & N. C. R. R. Co., delivered at Salisbury, July 8th.

Reported by a Spectator.

MR. CHAIRMAN:—I rise, with much diffidence, to submit a few remarks in answer to the distinguished gentleman from Newtern, Mr. Haughton. I came here thinking I would not say one word about Consolidation, but leave the question as to the expediency or inexpediency of this measure, to be decided by the Stockholders, themselves, believing them fully competent to do so without any suggestions from me. But, Mr. Chairman, after listening to the two speeches which the gentleman from Newbern has made upon this subject, I feel I must say a word or two in reply. The gentleman from Newbern takes the ground that because the Legislature of this State voted to submit the question of Consolidation to the Stockholders of this Company, that it should have great weight with us in making up our minds. What, Mr. Chairman, has this distinguished Legislature done for this great corporation, that should commend itself to our consideration? Has it passed any act that will add one cent to your revenue? Have they done anything that will benefit the N. C. R. R.? No Sir. On the contrary they have done everything possible to originate competing lines, which, if ever finished, will destroy this Road entirely. Did they not charter the Chatham Road to the South Carolina line, which, when finished, will be the shortest line from Columbia to the North? Did they not charter and make appropriations to build the Ohio and Tennessee Railroad, when it was well known that the projectors of that Road intended it to be run, in connection with the Virginia and Tennessee Road, making a shorter line North than via the N. C. R. Road? Can you, Mr. Chairman, point out a single act of the present Legislature, with the exception of the appropriation to the W. N. C. R. R., but what was calculated to damage, yea, to destroy this great work?

The gentleman says that as this bill passed the Legislature by a large majority, it is a sure indication that it reflects the wishes of four-fifths of the people of the State, because they are the exponents of public sentiment. God save the mark! What measure of the Legislature reflects public sentiment? If grinding the people into extreme poverty by exorbitant taxation, reflects public sentiment then the Legislature does express the views of our people, otherwise it does not? Look at the names of those members of the Legislature who voted for this measure? and, with a few exceptions, they are men who are not identified in interest with the tax payers of the State. A majority of those voting for consolidation add but few dollars in the way of taxation to our revenue, and what interest have they in our old State? Nothing Sir, absolutely nothing. But few of them pay any tax at all, and the only way they benefit "good old North Carolina" is by making our laws, (such as they are,) at seven dollars per day. Yes Sir, benefit "good old North Carolina" by paying a poll tax, and half of these, for Consolidation, were too old, even, to pay this pittance!

This Legislature that knew so little law, did not represent the tax payers of the State. No sir the Lindsay's and the men who pay tax in North Carolina were not represented.

Yet Sir, the gentleman from Newbern says the Legislature passed the bill to consolidate this Road, with the A. & N. C. R. R., and claims, that in this measure they proved themselves to be statesmen, and great benefactors to "Good old North Carolina." Yes Sir "Good old North Carolina." This has been the song of the consolidation party for months, and especially by its advocates about Newbern and Morehead City. These people care nothing for themselves, and their motives are not selfish!—They do not wish to sell lots at Newberne and Morehead City at advanced prices! No Sir, their motives are solely to advance the interests of "Good old North Carolina."—What have these advocates done for North Carolina? What has Newbern and Morehead City done for North Carolina, and especially for the Western part of the State? Nothing, Sir, nothing; yes, they helped to tax the people to build their Roads and Canals in the East, and when finished their voices were heard crying aloud, "No more internal improvements." "We want no more internal improvements unless they are built in the East." "We cant be taxed for other improvements." Such, Sir has been the policy of the men who now talk so much about consolidation and "Good old North Carolina."

Sir, if I had no other reasons for opposing consolidation, the mere fact of its having been passed as it was, and by such a Legislature, would cause me to look on it with suspicion. Sir, a majority of those who voted for this bill, know nothing about Railroads, seaports, and cared less. But the gentleman says it reflects public sentiment, as the Legislature passed it; I deny it. In the name of the overburdened tax payers of North Carolina, I deny that this Act reflects public sentiment—or that a majority of that Legislature do reflect public sentiment. Let them return to their constituents, and ask for re-election. And the response will invariably be "you have been weighed in the balances and found wanting."

The gentleman from Newbern says a great deal about who shall vote the State Stock; the friends of consolidation flatter themselves about the shrewdness displayed in engineering, the bill relied upon to deprive you of your vested rights under your charter. They thought themselves particularly smart when they slipped the law alluded to, through the Legislature on the very last day of the session, by simply reading its title, many of the members voting for the bill, little supposing that in the pages of said act, was a section which was intended to make Col. Harris State proxy in all your public works. It was a trick, and I don't suppose ten members in each house, knew that such provision as the last article of the bill contains, were in the bill.

But, Mr. Chairman, they overreached themselves, they knew no law, and in trying to deceive the honest members of the Legislature, they wrote too much law, and too little sense, and thereby defeated their own trick, for I am informed by one of the best lawyers of the State (an ex Supreme Court Judge) that the act making Cebe proxy and deputy Governor, simply makes him nothing, as it cannot be applied on record either before or since the action of the last General Assembly. If this be so, and I believe it, Cebe has no more right to claim that he can represent the State in this meeting, than he has to represent the man in the moon.

No, Mr. Chairman, Cebe never would have thought of bringing himself in opposition to the laws and the administration, had he not been gobbled up by the hungry crowd at Newbern and Morehead City, who are so anxious to take care of "good old North Carolina." Yes sir, they gobbled him up, and carried him to Newbern with his big painted stick, and frightened those piscatorial gentlemen and took possession of their meeting, and to day he is in our midst without his big stick, but with his injunction, I'll not call it injunction, as the name is too long and the process too common. Yes, Mr. Chairman, Cebe is here with his injunct, with a view to defeat a meeting of the Stockholders of your Road, but thus far his injunct has not been headed. Seriously, sir, Cebe is hacked; his feathers have fallen, and he looks like he would surrender all claims to be proxy, and be the happiest man living, if he could get away from the meeting without being seen by anybody. But, alas! the gentleman from Newbern has Cebe up to his neck in hot water and I am sorry to say, the gentleman from Newbern is too short to pull him out. I am sorry for Cebe; like Tray he has been caught in bad company and we can yet give him the right hand of fellowship, if he will drop his foolishness and not try to overthrow the old charter of this Road; for his pretense under the late act and under which he claims to represent the State, is in direct violation of our charter.

The gentleman from Newbern claims that the Road should be consolidated upon the great original idea advanced by Caldwell, Gaston and Morehead. In the days of the first two distinguished gentlemen, our road was not built, and no such complications as now exist was thought of. But the gentleman shall not make a point here by quoting the names of these great men. Does he claim that the present members of the legislature are the equals of Gaston, Caldwell and Morehead? Or that, if now living, these great men would, at this day, vote to destroy our great Road, in trying to save a worthless one, by consolidation? If there were no other roads in our State then consolidation would be feasible. But, Mr. Chairman, with the present net work of Railroads through our State, the idea is a humbug, and especially under this extraordinary bill of the last Legislature. All kinds of measures have been resorted to, to carry out consolidation. A great excursion trip was given to Newbern and Morehead City The magnificent first class ships at these ports were to conduct the visitors through the spacious harbors of Morehead City, but alas! What a fall! the worthy President of this Road had a fishing smack fitted up for the accomodation of the visitors, when lo! it grounded! Then our friend declared with cuss words, "such a thing had not before occurred for twenty years." What did the visitors see at these places? If it was anything but magnificent sand banks and Banker ponies, my informants have deceived me. The truth is, this Atlantic Road is a humbug. Its real name is the Mullet Road, for its principal freight consist in fish, and occasionally oysters. Why tack this Road to ours? Our freights in one month are equal to a whole year's earnings of this Mullet Road.

But, in all seriousness, it is no use to try to divert trade from its natural channels. You might as well attempt to make water run up stream as to change the unalterable laws of trade. Men will carry their produce to such markets as will command the highest prices, and where, in return, they can buy goods the cheapest. If Morehead is such a Commercial mart, why has not the laws of trade found it out.

Mr. Chairman, this morning I was afraid to say a word. There sat Jo. Turner ready to pounce me, as I thought, for he is the worst political enemy I have, and yet my politics of old use to be like his, for I was and am to day, an old Henry Clay, Daniel Webster Federalist. This evening, finding everybody on my side, I am encouraged to talk.

Mr. Chairman, it has been intimated that I opposed consolidation because I feared I would lose my situation. I fear nothing of the kind, nor am I opposed to consolidation on this account, or on account of the stock I own in the Road. I can easily live without my office. I can retire to my farm in sweet old Johnston; there I can live, and there bask in the sunshine of peace, and there I can have peace. But, sir, in opposing consolidation, I am solely actuated by the wish to see this great Road a success.—I have worked as a matter of pride and not interest.

If I have opposed, yes, violently opposed, consolidation, it was because I desired to see this Road paying the men who put in their gold dollars and stout arms to build it. Yes, sir, talk about your "original ideas," and from the "Mountains to the Sea Shore," and "good old North Carolina," It is all stuff to talk in this way, to men who lost all except what little they own in this Road. Mr. Chairman it would be the proudest day of my life if I could make this Road pay large dividends to the original Stockholders, as it would gladden the heart of many a gray headed old man, and bring comfort to the widows and orphans of the men who furnished the means to build this Road.

ANCIENT GOLD COIN.—Prof. E. F. Rockwell, of the Female College at this place, has in his possession, an ancient gold coin, about the size of a ten dollar gold piece, that was dug up in the lower portion of this county sometime ago, and is pure gold. Its nationality is uncertain and hard to determine on account of its antiquity, but from certain indications it is a Spanish coin and was milled in the reign of Phillip IV of Spain. How it got to this county, and was lost, are questions for the curious to determine.—Statesville American.

A negro named Louis Vaughan was examined before Mayor Parham, on Monday, on the charge of stealing a cow belonging to Nathan Hawkins, colored, and converting said cow into beef which he sold.—Vaughn confessed the steeling and offered to pay Hawkins for his slaughtered cow; this H. refused to receive as he was of the impression that the "tender mercies" of the law might have a restraining influence upon his colored friend's enterprise. In default of bail, Mayor Parham sent the offender on to jail.—Henderson Index.

SCOTLAND NECK. We met a gentleman yesterday evening from the Scotland Neck section, and were pleased to learn that there was no suffering there for rain—the crops are looking elegant and the people in good spirits.

The sulky-plow trial took place last Saturday, resulting in the success of the "Buck-Eye" plow. We are promised a full account of the trial by our next issue.—Roanoke News.

IMPORTANT CONSULTATION.—We learn from an authorative source that Governor Walker has invited a number of the most prominent Virginians, including Gen. R. E. Lee, to meet him in consultation upon affairs of interest to the State, at the Montgomery White Sulphur Springs. The meeting will take place at an early day after Gov. Walker's return from New York, which will be definitely fixed upon hereafter.—Lynch News.

"RECONSTRUCTION" IN MISSISSIPPI—PRESIDENT GRANT'S PROCLAMATION.

The proclamation of Gen. Grant, issued yesterday, fixing the time for the election in Mississippi and designating the parts of the new Constitution to be submitted to a separate vote, does not challenge special remark except in relation to the time. There is no necessity, and no good reason, for deferring the election until the 30th of November. The motive for selecting so distant a day is easily understood, and is discreditable to General Grant and his advisers.

There is no such difference in the circumstances of the three States of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas, that their several elections should be separated by wide intervals of time. The people of Mississippi, and the people of Texas, were just as well qualified, and as fully prepared, to pronounce their judgments on their respective constitutions in the early part of July, as were the people of Virginia. But the object of the administration is not to get a fair and honest expression of the will of the people, but to carry each election, if possible, in favor of the Republican party. Two United States Senators are to be elected by each of the new legislatures, and six Conservative Senators will not be tolerated if, by any kind of political trick, their election can be prevented. If the Wells party had triumphed in Virginia, the elections in Mississippi and Texas would have been ordered almost immediately; but the Republican disappointment in Virginia makes the party afraid, and so General Grant postpones action in Mississippi as long as he can, and leaves Texas to await the result of the Mississippi election.

The pretence that the election is put off until the end of autumn to suit the convenience of the cotton planters is an impudent absurdity. Their wishes have not been consulted or considered. It is notorious that they desire earlier action. What is the loss of a single day in attending to the cotton crop in comparison with the release of the State from military rule? Out-door industry will be suspended dozens of times by rain-storms; and an election, even in the busiest season, would have no more effect than one additional rainy day. It is put off until the last day of November for no other reason than to enable the Republicans to organize a campaign to defeat the will of the people. Radical wire-pullers and stump orators dare not venture into Mississippi during the hot months; and General Grant has appointed the election with a view to give them the advantage of a busy canvass during the cool autumn months. The Republicans hope to bring such influences to bear upon the Mississippi negroes as will enable them to control the whole negro vote; and President Grant is their subservient tool.

The result in Virginia was such a disappointment to the Radicals that "it gives them pause." They hoped to carry the State by an affectation of liberality in consenting to throw out disfranchisement and the test-oath. Having committed themselves to this policy, they cannot very well back out of it; but finding that their mock magnanimity does not profit them, they are at a stand as to the course they will pursue in the other States. They wish to solve the Virginia problem, and see what can be done to circumvent the declared will of the people there, before running the risk of getting other cases of the kind upon their hands. It would be awkward and embarrassing for Congress to reject the new Virginia government; and, on the other hand, it would go against the grain to admit two Conservative members from that State.—The only way out of the dilemma which has yet occurred to the Radical leaders, is the application of the "iron clad" test-oath to the members of the new government. So long as the Radicals were confident of carrying the State, that test-oath was kept quite out of sight. But when, as the election approached, they lost heart at the premonitions of defeat, they incited General Canby to declare his intention to enforce the oath. Gen. Grant's recorded opinion, and General Canby's own recorded opinion, should have bound them to a different course; but what Republican cares for consistency when the success of his party is at stake?

General Canby's present argument is, that the new Virginia governments will be merely provisional until Congress shall have sanctioned it; and that the original reconstruction acts require all the members of the provisional State governments to take iron-clad oath. This requirement had reference only to the State governments organized under the auspices of President Johnson, and was not meant to apply to the reconstructed governments. At least, so General Grant decided, and so General Canby himself decided, in previous cases. But the Radicals do not mean to stand by this view if they can help it; and General Grant, in spite of his strongly expressed decision last year, has referred the question to Attorney General Hoar for an official opinion. If General Canby's present view is upheld, it will practically nullify the result of the recent Virginia election, inasmuch as Canby permitted it to be supposed, until long after the Conservative candidates were nominated, that the oath would not be required, and a great many have been elected who cannot take it. The Radicals calculate that the oath will fling out a sufficient number of the Conservative members of the legislature to leave the Radicals a majority, when they can proceed to elect two Radicals to the Senate of the United States; and this result secured, Congress will make a sure thing of it by admitting the State. If this dishonest and detestable manœuvre succeeds in Virginia, the Radicals will have more confidence in the resources of their duplicity and fraud for circumventing the people of Mississippi and Texas.—New York World.

THE NEW ATLANTIC CABLE FINISHED.

ST. PIERRE, Miquelon, Wednesday, July 14, 1869.—The ocean cable was spliced to the shore end to day by the steamer William Corry. The cause of the failure to splice yesterday was that the shore end was lost. The buoy was easily found, but when taken up it was discovered that the cable was detached, and it was therefore necessary to grapple for it. Directly the splice was made the instruments and the full staff of operators were sent on shore, and communication was soon opened with Brest.—Sir James Anderson, the commander of the Great Eastern, had brought with him a sealed message, which had been prepared by the Emperor Napoleon, and the purport of which was to remain unknown until it was opened on this side of the Atlantic upon the completion of the cable, when the message was to be sent to the Emperor over the wires, in order that he might thus judge of the accuracy of the transmission. This message was sent to France to day.

The New York Citizen complains that the Republicans have adopted old Democratic principles.—Exchange.

To some extent this is true, especially as regards old Democratic principles which were wise and statesmanlike.—North Carolinian.

Republicans stealing Democratic thunder, eh? But that is not very remarkable—they have stolen everything else they could lay their hands on.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the northwestern part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility, dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD:

For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate
Per week,	16 00
Per day,	2 50

RAIN.—A light shower about 11 o'clock last night, had a tendency to slighty moderate the intense aridity of the atmosphere, but the effects were neutralized by the fervid beams of the Day-god, long before noon to day. There did not fall rain enough to be of any great advantage to the crops, but we confidently anticipate a repetition of the shower, ere Luna emerges from her present gibbous proportions. Ahem!

GOLD SPECTACLES LOST.—We regret to learn that Rev. W. E. Pell, lost his gold spectacles on yesterday. He preached at the City Mission Chapel on Sabbath morning, used his spectacles, and has not seen them since. He values them highly, having been a present from a friend, and would reward the finder. We hope he will get them soon.

SAD NEWS.—The many friends of Mr. James A. Moore, of this city, will learn with profound grief, the sad intelligence that he is lying extremely low, at the Catawba Springs, where he had gone in hope of improving his health His recovery, we understand, is despaired of. His brother and sister have gone to him, to minister to him in his extreme illness.

REV. T. M. JONES.—This gentleman, late President of Kittrells Springs Female College, the circumstances connected with his withdrawal from which, is, we presume, generally understood, has arranged to reopen the Warrenton Female College, where his friends and patrons will find him prepared to meet their expectations in the education of their daughters. Mr. Jones enjoys the reputation in being one of the most successful educators of the State, if not of the South, and his former patrons and others, who may have daughters to educate, will be glad to learn that he has secured so eligible a situation as Warrenton is known to be. There is not a healthier location in the State. It is of easy access and unsurpassed in the intelligence and morality of its, citizens. The buildings and grounds of the Warrenton Female College are all that could be desired—the buildings commodious; the grounds tastily laid off; the location sufficiently retired; and the tour leading Churches have houses of worship convenient to the College.

The Fall session will open, we learn, on the 12th of August. Particulars will be given in an advertisement in a few days.

The Warranton, Liesing Present, alluding to Mr Jones' taking charge of Warrenton Female College, says:

The community will be gratified to learn that Rev. Turner M. Jones, who so successfully conducted the Greensboro Female college, has leased the college buildings in this place, which will be opened in about three weeks for the reception of pupils.

Mr. Jones' reputation as an able scholar and teacher extends throughout the Southern States and will, beyond a doubt, render this one of the first institutions in the State.

Our village has cause of congratulation on having secured him as a citizen.

CORRECTION.—In the paragraph on the subject of Parochial Schools, which appeared in this column in our Saturday's issue, we were in error in stating that Mr. James W. Redd, who has been engaged to take charge of the Methodist School, is a graduate of Trinity College. He is a graduate of Emory and Henry, in which institution he graduated with the first honors in all the branches of study, and on one, received, the gold medal. He was also Tutor in that institution fifteen months.

REVIVAL AT THE AFRICAN M. E. CHURCH.—There has been a religious revival in progress in the African M. E. Church of this City, without intermission, for over two months. The meetings are held nightly and on the Sabbath, resulting, up to this time, of more than one hundred and twenty accessions to the Church; besides a large number who have made profession of religion but have not yet joined the Church The meetings are not yet closed, and the interest appears unabated.

BALL AND PARTY.—The Ridgeway Land Company gave a splendid Ball and Party at their new Hotel in Ridgeway, on the 14th inst., of which the Living Present speaks in very glowing terms. We know something of the receding generation in that section, and if the present rising generation take after their fathers and mothers, there was no discount on the pleasure and gayety of the occasion.

MASONIC.—A regular meeting at Hiram Lodge No. 40, A. Y. M., will be held at Masonic Hall this evening, at the usual hour. Members of the Lodge will take due notice thereof and govern themselves accordingly. Transient Brethren in the City are invited to attend.

Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, R. A. M. meets to morrow (Tuesday) evening. Punctual attendance of the Companions is earnestly requested.

VISITORS TO THE STATE.—We notice upon the Register of the Yarborough House the names of Messrs. B. A. Mitchell, E. T. Mockridge, Edward Lewis, and Rev. W. Morris, of Philadelphia, who are on a visit to our State for the purpose of purchasing lands. We had the pleasure of an introduction to Messrs. Mitchell and Lewis, who appear to be very nice gentlemen and of the sort that we would gladly welcome to our State.

They express themselves highly pleased with North Carolina and her people, and are negotiating for, or have already purchased, a considerable quantity of land in the counties of McDowell and Caldwell.

RAILROAD DECISION.—The opinion of the Supreme Court, in the case of the University Railroad Company vs. the Governor and Public Treasurer was filed with the Clerk of the Court at 4 o'clock this afternoon,—too late for our paper to day, which goes to press soon after that hour. We will give it to morrow.

The opinion decides this and the other Railroad appropriations, made by the present Legislature, to be unconstitutional.—This will be a matter of great rejoicing to the tax payers of the State.

WE publish to-day a letter from Jo. Cannon, Esq., to the President of the North Carolina Land Company, on the subject of the Grape Culture in North Carolina.

Also, a letter from Chief Justice Pearson, in regard to the observance of law and order in this State, and the safety of persons from other States settling among us; every word of which we do most heartily endorse.

We shall give, to-morrow, letters from some of our leading and most popular physicians in regard to the healthfulness of our climate.

These letters are copied from the Advertising sheet of the North Carolina Land Company, and contain facts which every citizen of the State ought to endeavor to spread throughout the country by every opportunity that offers.

Professor Agassiz has been sought for to consent to stand and deliver an oration before the Philadelphia Germans on the occasion of the Humboldt centenary, September 14, next.

Miss Adelside Phillips and Miss Gail Hamilton are making mirthful and musical the home of Speaker Blaine.

LETTER FROM J. S. CANNON, ESQ., ON THE GRAPE CULTURE.

JULY 2nd, 1869

To the President and Directors of the North Carolina Land Company.

GENTLEMEN:—Your letter requesting me to write an article on the culture, product, &c., of the Scuppernong and other grapes, has been received. In compliance with your request, I proceed to give you my experience in grape growing. I have been engaged for the last ten years, in the cultivation of the grape in Eastern North Carolina. I began without experience of my own, or any other person to guide me, and as a consequence, more than half my time and labor were lost in cultivating worthless varieties, which I was forced to abandon after several years trial. Still my experiment has been entirely satisfactory; has paid me much better than the same land and capital would have paid in any other business or crop.

The Scuppernong is propagated by layers. I plant them thirty feet apart each way, and in such a manner that in every other row the vines will be opposite each other. I then train them to a stake, keeping the side shoots rubbed off to increase the growth of the vine, until it attains six feet in height. I then make an arbor by planting four posts ten feet apart, and putting rails on top, for the vine to run upon. At five years old, with proper culture and soil, the vine will cover the entire square, and produce over a bushel of grapes, which will make three gallons of wine. At ten years old will cover nine squares produce nine bushels of grapes, which will make twenty seven gallons of wine, and so on for every additional square. The Scuppernong prunes itself, by curling its tendrils around the vine, thus cutting off circulation; the vine then dies beyond the tendril and should be pulled out. The grapes are about the size of marbles, grow singly or in small clusters, and are of a transparent yellowish green color, and ripen from the 15th of August to the 20th of September, at which time they are gathered by two persons holding a canvas attached to poles, and a third person shaking the vine with a forked stick; the grapes falling upon the canvas, are emptied in tubs, ready for the grape mill, and to be made into wine.—Every acre covered with Scuppernong vines, will produce twelve hundred and fifty gallons of wine, and the Scuppernong is equal to any wine produced in the United States. The Scuppernong is a native of North Carolina, and although it will grow and flourish in any latitude south of the Potomac, yet the soil and climate of Eastern North Carolina suits it better than any other, and where it attains great age. In addition to the white Scuppernong just described, I have the black Scuppernong, which makes a wine similar to the white, the only difference being in the color of the wine, the black making a wine of a deep red color. I have also a seedling of the white Scuppernong, which bears a large purple grape, and makes a nice pink colored wine.

I have a number of Mish vines, a black grape of the Scuppernong family, berries as large, grows more in clusters, ripens later, much better bearer, and is the sweetest, most hardy and most productive grape known in this section of the country. It contains about thirty per cent. of saccharine matter, and makes a number one cherry wine, without any adaition, and as a table grape, I think it superior to all others. Out of over two hundred and fifty varieties of grapes, it is the only grape that I have been able to make a good wine without any addition.

I have seen in other places, a grape growing, which they called Mish, but which I think is nothing more than a common Scuppernong seedling; my Mish being entirely a different grape.

Out of two hundred and fifty varieties of grapes foreign and native, I have selected those mentioned of the Scuppernong family, and the Concord, Clinton, Hartford, Prolific and Madeira, as being the most profitable to cultivate in this section of the country. The Concord is a hardy and rampant grower, bunches large, shouldered and compact, berries large, round, very sweet, thick skin and covered with bloom.—The hardiness and vigor of the vine, its capability to suffer hard usage and neglect, its productiveness and freedom from disease, the early and uniform maturing of the fruit, its unrivalled beauty, large size and superior flavor, are giving it a popularity unequalled by any other variety." This grape will rapidly improve for every degree it goes South. It has always given me entire satisfaction. It is a trellis grape and has to be pruned. No other bunch grape is so rapidly growing in favor, and being so generally planted for wine and for the table.

Hartford Prolific is a vigorous grower, perfectly healthy, and profuse bearer, bunches large, berries oval, thin skin, black, covered with bloom, sweet and juicy. It is valuable as the earliest table grape, subject to no disease or blight, makes a beautiful wine of medium quality, improves rapidly as it is carried farther South.

Madeira is a hardy and vigorous grower, fine wine grape, not so good for the table, only one objection; it puts out so early in the Spring, that the late frost injures the fruit some seasons. There is a great deal of land for sale in Eastern North Carolina, suitable for the cultivation of the grape, which can be bought at very low figures, and I am satisfied that there is no kind of farming will pay half as well as the cultivation of the grape.

Very respectfully yours,

J. S. CANNON.

P. S.—I have a great many vines of the varities mentioned, which will be ready for sale next Fall. Should any of your friends wish to go into the business, I can supply them with vines.

DISASTROUS ACCIDENT ON THE ERIE RAILROAD.

We extract from the New York Herald of the 16th inst., the following particulars of an appalling accident which occurred at Mast Hope twenty-eight miles west of Port Jervis, on the Erie Railroad, on Wednesday last:

The latest particulars gleaned on the scene of the disaster, near midnight last evening, give the ensuing version and cover the names and addresses of most of those who were killed and wounded.

Extra freight train No. 39 had been telegraphed to wait at Mast Hope for the passing of trains No. 7 and No. 3 (both passenger.) The engineer, Griffin, backed into the side track and went to sleep, and in the meantime train No. 7 passed. The engineer got up, apparently asleep, and turned on the throttle. The fireman asked him what he was about, but before he had time to answer the engine of train No. 3 collided with that of No. 39, hitting it just forward of the tender. The passenger locomotive overturned completely, scattering the fire through the splintered wreck, which speedily ignited and blazed up into a brilliant conflagration. The engineers and firemen on both trains escaped with slight injuries, though how they escaped they are themselves unable to tell. The passenger train consisted, besides engine's tender, of one mail car, two baggage cars, one smoking car, one day passenger coach and four sleeping coaches. When the collision occurred the rear baggage car telescoped with the smoking car, smashing into and about half way through it. The passengers in this car were principally German emigrants, bound to the West. Nearly all the passengers in the smoking car were either killed outright or were so jammed up in the debris of the wreck as to render their escape impossible, and they met death in its most horrible and agonizing form by the demon of fire. Only four or five passengers are known to have escaped from this car, and the probability is that twelve or fifteen persons were burned.

The remains of seven bodies were taken from the ashes, but nothing remains of them save a few charred bones, and portions of the trunks of two or three are not entirely consumed.

A German, who lives near the scene of the disaster, was aroused by the engineer of the train, and saw the flames when they first burst forth. As he approached the wreck he states that he had heard screams issuing from the burning car, but only of short duration.

Rev. D. B. Hallock, a Universalist preacher of this city, in company with his brother-in-law, a gentleman residing in Syracuse, whither they were going, was uninjured by the collision, but his feet were fastened in such a manner as to render his extrication impossible, and he met death calling upon his friends, "for God's sake to help him, as he was not injured, but only fast." Notwithstanding the efforts made to release him, the flames reached him, and nothing now remains of him save the head and trunk, shrivelled and shrunken, his legs and arms having been completely burned off.

Among the burned was a German woman and her two children. A German emigrant, named David Baer, was also burned.

The remains of the seven bodies that were taken from the ashes were found in a space of ten feet. There is nothing by which they may be recognized. They were placed on a platform along the track and covered up with blankets, awaiting the arrival of the Coroner for an inquest. They were then forwarded to Port Jervis.

Among three or four who were rescued from the wreck was Mr. John Flowers, of this city, who states that there were, as he thinks, some twelve or fifteen passengers ahead of him in the smoking car, and he thinks not one escaped.

LIST OF THE DEAD.

Rev. D. B. Hallock, of New York city.
David Bear, German emigrant.
German woman and two children, names unknown.
Several other charred bodies were not identified.

The overturned locomotive of the passenger train set fire also to the depot building at Mast Hope, which was entirely destroyed. None of the passengers were hurt except those in the smoking car.

LIST OF THE WOUNDED

Charles Baer, German emigrant, travelling West, only slightly injured. His father, David Baer, was killed outright and burned in the smoking car.

Gotfried Grans, German emigrant, small bone in leg broken; no other serious injuries.

D. Wentworth, bruised in back and internally hurt, but it is believed not seriously; he resides at Randolph, N. Y.

John Flowers, of New York city, bound for La Cross, Wis.; bruised and injured in back, not dangerously.

John Hunt, leg broken below the knee; he was jammed in between the seats and held fast until the flames had almost reached him, and was dug out and rescued from the wreck at the last moment by the bystanders. He resides at Waterford, N. Y.

The above were sent down to Port Jervis and were provided with accommodations at the Delaware House, where they are receiving every necessary care and attention.

In addition to the above the following train men were injured:—David Smith, flagman on freight train, slightly hurt; P. D. Schuyler, express messenger, cut on forehead and slightly bruised.

All the cars of the passenger train were burned, except the last three sleeping coaches. The mails in the Post Office car were partially destroyed. The express car was burned, with all except what were contained in the safes. Among the contents burned were three boxes of United States internal revenue stamps and other valuable miscellaneous express matter. The passengers on the ill-fated train, with the railroad employees present, did everything to extinguish the flames, and made every effort possible to rescue the unfortunate victims of the collision from the burning wreck. They succeeded in rescuing some, as above stated, and they also succeeded in saving three of the sleeping coaches and about one-half of the mails. The engineer of the freight train, James Griffin, acknowledges, it is understood, that he had been asleep, but he says he thought he heard a signal from the flagman to move on.

As soon as the news of the accident reached Port Jervis the wrecking train was sent to the scene of the disaster, and afterwards a special train, with physicians and others, to attend to the wants of the injured. Passenger trains Eastward bound were detained some hours until the track was cleared. Nothing remains of the wreck except the wheels, axles and iron used in the construction of the cars, the fire having completely destroyed the woodwork and furniture.

A jury was empannelled yesterday afternoon by the Justice of the Peace at Mast Hope. The jury went through with the formality of viewing the bodies and adjourned the inquest until one o'clock to-day, at Lackawaxen. Thomas Coffee was engineer of the passenger train, and Henry Smith conductor.

An "Enterprise and Loan Association" has been organized at Weldon, N. C.

ÆTNA
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
JANUARY 1ST., 1869.
Assets $10,462,531,75.
Amount of Income 6,227,071.
SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.
Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!
The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that this public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, unwholesome, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often constitutionally tainted, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power, so potent in this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abcess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose occasions of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Bumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, harsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no-wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

A SONG.

BY W. HUNT TILFORD.

I sing this song to one who makes
A pleasantness of duty;
Whose worth is shrined within her heart,
As well as in her beauty.
So fill the glass, let's toast the lass,
With hearts and bumpers brimmin',
Nor can it be a sin for me
To name her best of women!

The sparkle of the crystal wine
Shall be her bright eyes shining,
The garlands round the beaker's brim
Shall be her ringlets twining;
And so we'll claim a golden name
From every charm about her;
For angels know that here below
We could not live without her.

I sing this song to one near whom
The angels seem to hover,
The paragon of loveliness,
With naught in life above her;
And now she's found, all gather'd round
The bowl with good cheer brimmin',
Let's fill the glass and toast the lass—
The dearest one of women!

3001 Prizes. Value of the total am't, $146,694

The supervisors will be gentlemen well known and noted for honesty and integrity, who will not be allowed to purchase tickets or own any stock in the Company. The numbers and prizes will be drawn from each wheel by two blind boys and a full report of all numbers drawing prizes will be published in some prominent newspaper immediately after the drawing.

The President of the above Company furnishes the following references:

I am personally acquainted with Capt. Jos. G. Hester, and believe him to be a sober, industrious, enterprising correct man.

A. W. LAWRENCE, GENERAL AGENT Brooklyn Life Ins. Company.

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 20, 1869.

I am, also, personally acquainted with Capt. J. G. Hester, and fully concur with the statement made above by Mr. Lawrence. J. A. JONES, Bookseller and Stationer, Raleigh, N. C.

I am personally acquainted with Capt. Jos. G. Hester, and fully endorse the above testimonials. JAMES H. ENNISS, Bookseller, &c., Raleigh, N. C., Febb. 22, 1869.

I have been acquainted with Capt. J. G. Hester for several years, and concur in the above statements. JOHN C PALMER, Watchmaker & Jeweler, Raleigh, N. C.

I know Capt. J. G. Hester to be a gentleman of moral worth and integrity.

THOS. V. MOSS, Watchmaker & Jeweller, Raleigh, 22d Feb., 1869.

My personal acquaintance with Capt. Jos. G. Hester, as well as my observation of his business movements, justifies my hearty endorsement of the foregoing certificates, and shall regard him as well qualified for any branch of commercial pursuit. W. H. CROW, Gen'l A'gt. Etna Life Insurance Co.

Having known Capt. J. G. Hester for several years, I heartily endorse the above testimonials of his worth as a gentleman and business man. C. W. LAMBETH, Bookseller, &c. Raleigh, Feb. 22, 1869

I cheerfully endorse the foregoing. SEATON GALES, Sec'y N. C. M. L. Ins. Co.

Raleigh, Feb. 23, 1869.

Although I have known Mr Hester, but for a short time, I take pleasure in saying that I have formed a high opinion of his intelligence, enterprise, and capacity for business, and that I have been otherwise favorably impressed by him. DANIEL R. GOODLOE, U. S. Marshal.

I entirely concur with Mr. D. R. Goodloe, in the above statement. N. J. RIDDICK, Clerk U. S. Circuit Court.

INSANE ASYLUM OF NORTH CAROLINA, Raleigh, Feb. 24, 1869

I have known Capt. J. G. Hester, from his infancy. He is a gentleman of integrity, business qualifications and high personal character. EUGENE GRISSOM, Physician & Superintendent.

I entirely concur with Dr. Grissom in the above. W. W. HOLDEN.

I have known Capt. Hester for two years and concur in the above. R. W. BEST, Late Sec'y of State.

We, the undersigned, having been appointed supervisors of the above Company, do certify that we neither own any stock or tickets, nor can we, and we will here state that the drawing will be conducted fairly for all who hold tickets, whether present or not at the drawing. We will publish a full list of all numbers drawing prizes, which will be sent to any one desiring it.

CYRUS P. MENDENHALL, SION H. ROGERS, JAMES H. FOOTE, L. C LATHAM, Supervisors.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents to at already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One 3 cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will bear the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh.
